- a. The Examining Committee's report was received and approved by voice vote.

13. The Synod broke for lunch.

LUNCH

14. The Synod resumed with the Canons and Constitution Committee:

- a. Canon Houser noted the diocesan Constitution has a discrepancy with the wording of the National canons in the naming the ecclesiastical authority of the diocese in Article IV Section 2. The section was corrected to conform with the REC Constitution to read: "The Standing Committee and the Bishop shall together, constitute the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese."

The specific motion was:

"The Diocesan canons will be corrected to conform to the National Canons with regard to the ecclesiastical authority of the diocese".

The Motion was moved, seconded and approved by voice vote.

15. Bishop Manto gave the report for the Board of Foreign Missions (report attached).

- a. The report was received and accepted by voice vote.

16. It was moved to amend the Agenda to address any remaining business and then move to a discussion of REC 100.

- a. It was noted there is talk about eliminating clergy housing allowances in federal tax law and that the Committee on Church & State review this situation and address it with the Diocese.
- b. It was noted that historical REC practice and canon was to have the communion table out far enough to allow passage behind the table. It was further noted that more recent practice and the entering of the REC by ministers makes many clergy and parishes unfamiliar with this historic REC practice. It was asked that this be reviewed and past practice not be required but made known. Bishop Morse suggested the Committee on Constitution and Canons look at the issue.
- c. It was noted regarding the recent ACNA Bishops statement and study on Women's Ordination that many clergy and especially laity need access to resources easily explaining and addressing the REC understanding and position on the issue. Further writing was encouraged by knowledgeable persons and the sharing of REC author books be encouraged and promoted at synods and in other opportunities.

17. There being no other business before the Synod, it was moved and seconded that after the REC 100 presentation the synod hold its Closing Eucharist and adjourn.

- a. It was noted that it not being customarily acceptable practice it was suggested Evening Prayer be substituted for the closing Eucharist. After discussion, it was agreed to conclude business Thursday afternoon and gather Friday morning at 9 AM for the closing Eucharist.

b. The motion was defeated by a voice vote.

18. Woman of the Church – names and email addresses were requested to disseminate information.

19. Presentation – REC 100

a. Bishop Manto and Canon MacGregor presented background and purpose for the REC 100 Committee and program. General discussion and question and answer followed.

20. Bishop Manto noted that the organist to be at church for the closing Eucharist at 9:30 AM, so the time was adjusted accordingly.

21. Bishop Morse reminded parishes to use the provided form for attendance reporting.

22. The meeting adjourned until Evening Prayer.

Synod of the Diocese of Central States of the Reformed Episcopal Church
Report of the Nominations Committee

Our Task

The Nominations Committee was tasked with vetting candidates and making selections for the consideration and vote of the Synod of four class-of-2020 diocesan positions: Lay Trustee, Clergy Trustee, Lay Member of the Standing Committee, and Clergy Member of the Standing Committee.

The Compositions of the Board of Trustees and the Standing Committee are as follows:

Board of Trustees – The Trustees slated to leave office are The Rev. David Straw and Mr. Perry Hayes.

The remaining Trustees are The Rev. Dcn. Ken Mills (2018), Mr. Brad Burke (2018), The Rev. David Truax (2019), and Mrs. Patricia Smith (2019).

The ex officio Trustees are The Rt. Rev. Dan Morse, The Rt. Rev. Peter Manto, and The Rev. Canon Ian MacGregor.

Standing Committee - The members slated to leave office are The Very Rev. W. Scott Thompson and Dr. Sam Mansour.

The remaining members are The Rev. Dr. Paul Edgerton (2018), Mr. Cullen Estes (2018), The Rev. Josiah Jones (2019), and Mr. Jim Stubblefield (2019).

The ex officio members are The Rt. Rev. Dan Morse, the Rt. Rev. Peter Manto, the Rev. Canon J. Scott Houser, The Rev. Canon Ian MacGregor, and The Rev. Dcn. Ken Mills.

Our Method

Building upon the process we used last year, the Committee solicited recommendations from the diocese for the available positions. Once these recommendations were collected, the Committee considered each in conference with their own recommendations and determined a slate of potential nominees, all of which consented to serve if elected. Names suggested to us who were not nominated this year have been kept on record for their consideration in future years. We were grateful for the recommendations we received, particularly for lay positions. As all such recommendations this year were made by clergy, the Committee encourages the lay delegates to engage next year. Don't be bashful; qualified folks willing to serve can even recommend themselves!

On September 27 the Committee Chair sent the slate of nominees and their qualifications to the clergy and delegates for their consideration ahead of Synod.

The Nominees

For Lay Trustee: Mr. Mark Malson

Mr. Malson has assisted the Trustees whether officially or unofficially since the inception of the Missionary Diocese. He served as a Trustee until 2016 and has been requested back by multiple parties.

For Clergy Trustee: The Reverend Davidson Morse

Father Morse has been a part of our diocese for several years now and has proven himself hard-working, wise, and competent. He has served roles with New Covenant Schools and the parishes in Lynchburg and Appomattox, Virginia. He was highly commended to the Committee.

For Lay Member of the Standing Committee: Mr. Tom McConnell

Mr. McConnell (much like Mark Malson) serves as proof once again that in this diocese the reward for good service is more service. He has assisted in the leadership of the Diocese since its inception and served on the Standing Committee until 2015. We are grateful for his willingness to be considered again.

For Clergy Member of the Standing Committee: The Reverend Wayne MacNamara

Father MacNamara is rector of the parish of Christ the King in Dayton, Ohio, in which capacity he founded Dominion Academy. On the diocesan level, he has served as a member of the Standing Committee in the past and serves currently as an Examining Chaplain.

We thank our Bishop Ordinary, the Right Reverend Dan Morse, for opportunity to serve the diocese in this capacity.

We thank all who thought and prayed for us and offered advice.

As we prayed at the beginning of our work, let us now pray:

Our God and Father, who dost order the affairs of thy Church after the council of thy will, grant us, we beseech thee, the wisdom to recognize from among thy flock those of thine own choosing to serve with us within the leadership of the Diocese of Central States, that under thine anointing and watchful care they may lead with the mind of Christ, through the same our Savior, who with thee and thy consubstantial Spirit reigns for evermore. Amen.

2017 Report of the Rt. Rev. Daniel R. Morse
Bishop Ordinary, The Diocese of the Central States

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In accordance with the Canons of this Church, I hereby present you with a list of all active clergy in the Diocese of the Central States. Attached to the end of this report is the current list. All Deacons and Presbyters on that list are current.

On this occasion of my Ninth report as Bishop of this Diocese, I submit this summary of my activities during this past year in the work of the episcopate. Due to the great distances that most REC bishops have to cover, some of our work is done on the telephone, and I certainly have had my share of very long telephone conversations. Those are much less expensive than car or plane travel, but I hope you know for sure that if you need me to visit you I will drop everything and come, so do not hesitate to ask.

I made 19 Episcopal visits to the Parishes and Missions of this Diocese, and 19 persons were presented to me for the laying on of hands in the ancient rite of confirmation since I reported to you in 2016. In addition to those Episcopal visits, I had preaching engagements and meetings with clergy as enumerated below.

BISHOP ROYAL U. GROTE

As you know Bishop Grote died in his sleep sometime after midnight on the morning of Thanksgiving Day, 2016. His funeral was at Church of the Holy Communion, Dallas where his ashes were interred. Please remember his wife, Ellen, and their children and grandchildren in your prayers.

BISHOP PETER MANTO

I want to give special thanks to my Coadjutor, Bishop Peter, for his assistance this past year, and also to all of you for your warm welcome to him when he has visited you in my place.

ORDINATIONS AND INSTITUTIONS

I instituted the Rev. Davidson Morse as Rector of St. Andrew's, Appomattox, VA.

CLERGY TRANSFER

The Rev. Isaac Chavez accepted the invitation of Christ Our Hope parish in Dayton, OH to be the interim rector after the departure of the Rev. Harry Mathis.

The Rev. Deacon Johnny Bain resigned his orders due to his divorce.

ATTENDANCE AT THE COUNCILS OF THE CHURCH

The General Council of the REC only occurs every three years and the diocesan synod only once a year. For the Church to function properly we need full participation by all our clergy and lay representatives. In response to email reminders I have sent out in the last 2 years I have gotten responses indicating that some of you don't plan your schedules with these things in mind. Included in your responsibilities as churchmen when you took your ordination or membership vows is your participation in the councils of the church, and that requires a measure of planning on your part by putting those dates on your calendar and not planning vacations or other activities that would prevent your attendance. It also means that vestries need to include in the parish budget the expense of sending clergy and lay representatives to those council meetings.

DATE FOR THE 2018 DIOCESE MEETING

We have received an invitation from St. James Reformed Episcopal Church, Memphis, TN for the 2018 Synod. The dates will be October 25, 26, 2018.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That until the heinous practice of Abortion on demand is abolished in this country that the Third Sunday in January, or the Sunday closest to Holy Innocents (Dec. 28, 2017), be designated Sanctity of Life Sunday and observed in all our Parishes. Furthermore, that our Clergy prepare and deliver a sermon on that theme at the Worship services on that day. Liturgical resources are available from the Diocesan Headquarters of the Diocese of Mid-America for use on that Sunday.
2. That this Council commend the support of Cranmer Theological House, Cummins Theological Seminary, and Reformed Episcopal Seminary to the parishes of our Diocese and that every effort be made to support these essential ministries both in terms of finances and personnel.
3. That the parishes of the Diocese support the work of the Women in the Church.
4. That the parishes of the Diocese support the REC mission in Cuba.
5. That Dss. Teresa Johnson be thanked for her work in producing a newsletter for the diocese and that all parishes be encouraged to cooperate fully and communicate with her (trjohnsn@gmail.com) any news items about their parishes so that we can improve communications in the diocese.
6. That this Council commend the ministry of Matt and Sora Colvin to the support of all REC parishes.

Respectfully submitted,
The Rt. Rev. Daniel R. Morse

RULES OF ORDER
FOR GENERAL COUNCILS AND DIOCESAN SYNODS
OF THE
REFORMED EPISCOPAL CHURCH

- The business of every meeting shall be introduced with prayer.
- The Minutes of the sessions of the preceding day shall be read every morning at the opening of business unless the house shall otherwise determine.
- The President shall appoint the several committees, unless the canons of the church shall otherwise specify.
- When the President takes the chair, no member of the house shall continue standing, or shall afterward stand up, except to address the Chair.
- No member shall absent himself from the sessions of the house unless he have leave, or be unable to attend.
- When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the house, he shall with due respect address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.
- No member shall speak more than twice in the same debate without specific leave, by vote of the house.
- A question being once determined shall stand as the judgment of the house, and shall not again be drawn into debate during the same session, unless with the consent of two-thirds of the house.
- While the President is putting any question, the members shall continue in their seats, and shall not hold any private discourse.
- No motion shall be considered as before the house unless it be seconded.
- Reports made by the various Boards and Committees to any Council (or Synod) of the church are officially received upon presentation to the house, and are the subject of its action only insofar as they embody recommendations which require specific authorization or approval under the canons of this church.
- When any question is before the house, it shall be decided upon before any new subject is introduced, except for the question of adjournment.
- All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate. An appeal, however, may be made from the decision of the Chair by any member of the house; said appeal requiring a two-thirds majority vote to be sustained.
- The question on motion of adjournment shall be taken before any other, and without debate.
- When the house is about to rise, every member shall keep his seat, until the President shall leave the Chair.
- A call to prayer shall always be in order, when made by a member entitled to the floor; and in such case the Chair shall designate the person(s) whom he desires to lead in that service.
- These Rules of Order shall remain in force until altered or suspended by the Council, two-thirds of the members present voting for such alteration or suspension.

Respectfully submitted,

Rt. Rev. Peter Manto
Bishop Coadjutor, Diocese of the Central States

The Diocesan Trustees for 2017 consisted of
Deacon Ken Mills, Treasurer
Father David Straw, President
Patricia Smith, Vice President
Father Ian MacGregor, Secretary
Father David Truax
Perry Hayes
Mark Malson
Brad Burke
Bishop Daniel Morse (Ex officio member)
Bishop Peter Manto (Ex officio member)

In 2017 the Trustees decided to:

- 1) Meet quarterly.
- 2) Keep the precious metals in the safety deposit box in Tennessee and to give safety deposit box access to the new Treasurer.
- 3) Begin paying tithes to the REC on a periodic basis rather than an annual lump sum. Regular payments will assist with Diocesan Sustentation Fund planning and smooth out our cash flow.
- 4) Approve 2018 proposed budget to be presented to the Synod.
- 5) Approve to Appomattox Christian Academy, Ministry of St. Andrews REC, Appomattox VA
 - a) gift of $2,500
 - b) no interest loan, $2,500/ 24 months.

6) Clergy Salary
7) Meeting 10/27
48

For 2018 the Trustees plan to consider:

- 1) Appropriate moves for diversifying future investments.
- 2) Upgrading our record keeping program.
- 3) increasing the Bishop's Discretionary Fund.

God bless,

Fr. David Straw

The Secretary
55th General Council
Reformed Episcopal Church
Dallas, Texas, June 14-16, 2017

Madam Secretary,

As President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of the Central States, Reformed Episcopal Church, and in accordance with the Constitution and Canons of the Reformed Episcopal Church, Canon 11, Section 1(a), I hereby provide to the General Council the required evidence of the election of The Right Reverend Peter F. Manto as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of the Central States.

On October 27, 2016, the Synod of the Diocese of the Central States unanimously resolved to call for an election of a Bishop Coadjutor, and for permission from ACNA to hold such election (Exhibit 1). Subsequently, the nomination and election process was promulgated to the Diocese (Exhibit 2), with a 45-day nomination window from December 1, 2016 through January 15, 2017. The Rt. Rev. Peter F. Manto was properly nominated. The College of Bishops of ACNA granted permission for the election at their meeting of January 9-13, 2017, as recorded in A Report to the Church from the College of Bishops January 2017 Meeting.

At the close of nominations on January 15, 2017, The Rt. Rev. Manto stood as the only nominee. Considering the difficulty and expense of travel for an Election Synod with a single nominee, and concerned that a quorum for such a Synod might be difficult to achieve, an electronic election was proposed by the Standing Committee. A commercially available application was chosen and demonstrated through three mock elections to the DCS Standing Committee, the Presiding Bishop and staff, and the DCS electorate. Having demonstrated the security and anonymity features of the voting software, the process was approved by the Presiding Bishop and the Bishop Ordinary via teleconference on February 3, 2017, and subsequently by the Standing Committee. On February 22, 2017, The Rt. Rev. Daniel R. Morse, Bishop Ordinary, informed the Synod clergy and lay delegates of the election by letter (Exhibit 3).

The election was conducted on March 27, 2017. Voting tickets were emailed to the electorate, consisting of 23 clergy and 16 lay delegates (Exhibit 4), allowing a yes-or-no vote to the question: "Shall the Rt. Rev. Peter F. Manto be elected Bishop Coadjutor of the DCS?". Of the 23 clergy, 19 voted "yes." There were no negative votes. Participation was 82.61% of the clergy electorate. Of the 16 lay delegates, 13 voted “yes.” There were no negative votes. Participation was 81.25% of the lay delegate electorate. Participation of both clergy and lay delegates exceeded the canonical quorum of a simple majority, as certified by the Secretary of the Synod in Exhibit 5. The actual results tabulated by the software are provided as Exhibit 6. Two non-voting tellers were appointed to monitor and verify the election results. The reports of The Rev. Dcn. Barton J. Gingerich and The Rev. Dcn. Kenneth D. Mills are provided as Exhibit 7.

Due to the nature of the electronic election process, signatures attesting to the character statement of Canon 11, Section 1(a), were impractical to obtain. However, due to the high percentage of voter participation, and the fact that there were no negative votes, nor has there been any subsequent dispute of the election or the election process, the Standing Committee suggests to the General Council that the signatures of the electorate be considered affixed by virtue of their votes.

We, whose names are hereunder written, fully sensible how important it is that the Sacred Order and Office of a Bishop should not be unworthily conferred, and firmly persuaded that it is our duty to bear testimony on this solemn occasion without partiality or affection, do, in the presence of Almighty God, testify that the Right Reverend Peter F. Manto is not, so far as we are informed, justly liable to evil report, either for error in religion or for viciousness of life; and that we know of no impediment on account of which he ought not to be ordained and consecrated to that Holy Office. We do, moreover, jointly and severally declare that we believe him to be of such sufficiency in good learning, of such soundness in the Faith, and of such virtuous and pure manners and godly conversation, that he is apt and meet to exercise the Office of a Bishop to the honour of God and the edifying of His Church, and to be a wholesome example to the flock of Christ.

Respectfully submitted in Christ,

Resolution for Coadjutor Election Unanimously Passed by DCS Synod 10/27/2016

Resolved:

That the 2016 Synod of the Diocese of the Central States, Reformed Episcopal Church, convened on October 27, 2016 with a quorum of lay delegates and clergy, calls for an election of a Bishop Coadjutor of this Diocese, to be conducted and completed before April 30, 2017, in view of the sitting Bishop Ordinary having reached Canonical retirement age. Be it further resolved that permission for such election is requested of the Anglican Church in North America (ACNA), in accordance with the Constitutions and Canons of ACNA.

Exhibit 2

Diocese of the Central States

Bishop Coadjutor Nomination and Election Process November 28, 2016

Background:

The canons of both the REC and the DCS are largely silent on the process for nominating and electing a Bishop. This gives the Diocese considerable leeway in promulgating its own processes for these elections, provided the canons are not violated by those processes.

The Presiding Bishop and the Bishop Ordinary have made it clear that the DCS Standing Committee (SC) is to preside in developing the processes for nominating and electing a Coadjutor. Nominations are to be made to the SC, and the SC is to present a recommended slate to the Election Synod. The SC role will include vetting of nominees by ascertaining fitness, ability, and willingness to serve. It is the Presiding Bishop's expectation that the SC will present a recommended candidate. In the event of multiple candidates, this recommendation does not eliminate the candidacy of others, but presents to the election Synod the recommendation and endorsement of a single candidate by the SC.

I. Nomination Process

A. Who may nominate. Nomination of a candidate for Bishop Coadjutor may be initiated by either a Presbyterian or Lay Delegate member of the Synod. Deacons, having no vote in the Synod, may not initiate or endorse a nomination.

B. How nominations are to be made. Nominations are to be made to the Standing Committee (SC), addressed to the President of the SC (The Very Rev. W. Scott Thompson), copy to the Chairman of the SC (The Right Rev. Daniel R. Morse). The President of the SC will be responsible for forwarding all nominations and supporting documentation to all members (elected and ex-officio) of the SC. No candidate may be placed in nomination without the following endorsements:

1. Presbyters. Any Presbyterian placing a name in nomination must obtain the written endorsement of at least two other Presbyters agreeing to and endorsing the nomination. Nominating and endorsing Presbyters may not be of the same parish, and may not endorse multiple nominations.

2. Lay Delegates. Any Lay Delegate of the Synod, duly elected by their representative parish, may place a name in nomination, provided that such Lay Delegate obtain the written endorsement of one additional Lay Delegate and two Presbyters agreeing to and endorsing the nomination. Nominating and endorsing Lay Delegates and Presbyters may not be of the same parish, and may not endorse multiple nominations. Each church or mission may have one Lay Delegate, per the DCS Canons, and that Lay Delegate shall be the same as recognized at the DCS Synod of October 27-28, 2016, unless the parish shall elect another. Rectors and Vicars of churches and missions will confirm to the SC their respective Lay Delegate by 12/31/2016.

C. Who may be nominated. Candidates nominated for Bishop Coadjutor must be Bishops or Presbyters active and in good standing in the REC Diocese in which they serve. Active status means, for the purposes of these procedures, that the Bishop or Presbyter is Rector or has served as a Rector in an REC Diocese. Retired Bishops and Presbyters and those not actively serving in an REC parish may not be nominated.

D. Nominating period. The nominating period for the Bishop Coadjutor election will be from the distribution date of these procedures until the SC declares nominations closed on January 15, 2017.

E. Nominations from the Election Synod floor. While it is customary to call for nominations from the floor at an Election Synod, such nominations, if made, must comply with the procedures set forth above, including the requirements for multiple Presbyter endorsements. This nomination process should remedy the need for floor nominations, thus making for a more orderly and well prepared Election Synod.

II. Election Process

A. Venue. The normative venue for the election of a Bishop is an Election Synod, called for the single purpose of electing a Bishop (Coadjutor in this case) from the slate of nominees resulting from the Nomination Process (Article I above). No other business will be conducted at this Synod, old or new.

1. Place and Date. The place and date of the Election Synod will be determined and promulgated after the close of nominations. The Synod will be convened in a metropolitan location that features ease of air travel access, a convenient lodging facility for clergy and delegates attending, and an REC church in which the Synod may be conducted.

2. Electronic Vote. In the event that there is a single candidate, and given the expense and burden in our Diocese of travel to vote for a single candidate, the Presiding Bishop, the Ordinary, and the Standing Committee (SC) may adopt a method of receiving votes from the clergy and laity electronically, provided that:

- a) Voting by secret ballot (anonymity of voters) can be maintained
- b) Voting by orders can be facilitated
- c) A quorum by orders can be validated

B. How the vote is conducted. The vote for a Bishop is by ballot and by orders. The Canons of the DCS state that “At least thirty (30) days before the Synod at which a Bishop is to be elected, notice in writing of such election shall be sent by the Secretary of the Standing Committee to every clergyman and vestry in the Diocese. A majority of the parishes must be represented at a Synod in which a Bishop is to be elected. The vote shall be by orders and a majority of those present of both orders shall be necessary for election” (Canon II, Section 2).

1. Presiding Authority. The Bishop Ordinary shall preside at the Election Synod, and may deliver his sentiments on any subject after it has been discussed and before a vote thereon (DCS Canons, Canon II, Section 3).

2. The Standing Committee (SC). The SC will present to the Election Synod a recommended nominee. The SC shall have vetted nominees by ascertaining fitness, ability, and willingness to serve. The recommendation of the SC does not eliminate other nominees, but constitutes their studied recommendation to the clergy and laity of the most qualified nominee.

3. Ballots. The election will be conducted by ballot, such that ballots are prepared and submitted for count without attribution as to person or parish voting. In the case of electronic ballots, whatever means may be employed must preserve this anonymity.

4. Vote by Orders. The Clergy and Lay Delegates shall vote separately, and a simple majority of each is required for election. Ballots provided to qualified voters will distinguish by some means between Clergy and Lay (ex. colored ballots). In the case of electronic ballots, whatever means may be employed must preserve this distinction.

5. Quorum. The Synod must establish that a quorum is present, in accordance with II.B., meaning that a simple majority of Clergy are present and that a simple majority of Lay Delegates are present. In the case of electronic ballots, whatever means may be employed must preserve the ability to ensure and record this quorum.

6. Completion. The Election Synod may not be adjourned without electing a Bishop. In cases such as division between orders, ties, or other unforeseen dilemmas, the Ordinary and his officers will labor for unity and compromise, and will call for continued votes until a simple majority of both orders is reached.

7. Tellers. The Bishop Ordinary will appoint two or more tellers from Synod attendees to count the votes, crosscheck the count, and report to the Election Synod. In the case of an electronic vote, the tellers shall be appointed by the Ordinary from among the Diaconate (non-voting) and shall perform the same function via electronic correspondence.

C. Who may vote. Qualified clergy and Lay Delegates may vote. Clergy and Lay Delegates must be present at the Election Synod to vote. Absentee ballots may be received only by the Ordinary, and only upon determination by the Ordinary that serious illness or emergency precludes being present to vote. In the case of an electronic vote, the requirement for presence is obviously waived.

1. Clergy. Only Presbyters and Bishops on the active rolls of the Diocese may vote. Retired or inactive clergy may not vote. Nominees are expected to attend the Election Synod, and may vote.

2. Lay Delegates. Lay Delegates may vote. Alternate Lay Delegates may not vote unless assuming the duties of a Lay Delegate who is unable to vote. Lay Delegates are those lay members of the Synod duly elected and appointed by their parishes in accordance with I.B.2. above.

Subj: Election Process for Bishop Coadjutor by the Synod of the Diocese of the Central States

Dear Clergy and Lay Delegates of the Synod:

On October 27, 2016, the Synod of the Diocese of the Central States (DCS), being convened in Richmond, VA, with an established quorum and The Rt. Reverend Daniel Morse presiding, resolved unanimously to elect a Bishop Coadjutor of DCS, and to request permission from the Anglican Church in North America (ACNA) for such an election, in accordance with the Constitutions and Canons of the ACNA. The College of Bishops of ACNA granted permission for such an election at their meeting of January 9-13, 2017, as recorded in A Report to the Church from the College of Bishops January 2017 Meeting.

On November 28, 2016, the Synod was notified by the Standing Committee (SC) of DCS of the approved process for clergy and lay delegates to submit nominations for Bishop Coadjutor to the SC, and of the nomination period extending through January 15, 2017. On January 16, 2017, the Synod was notified by the SC of the close of nominations, and of the sole nomination of The Rt. Reverend Peter F. Manto for Bishop Coadjutor.

Given that there is but a single nominee, the feasibility of an electronic vote, in lieu of an assembled election Synod, was examined. Various available software applications were tested and one was selected that satisfies all the canonical requirements for election of a Bishop. These requirements are:

- A quorum by orders (clergy and lay delegates separately)
- A vote by orders
- Vote by secret ballot

Since the software selected gathers only the “yes or no” response of the vote, and collects no information on the voter, the confidentiality of the voting is protected.

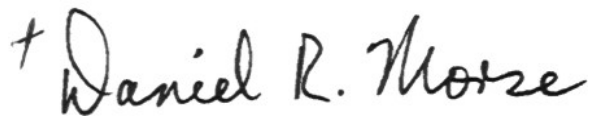

The election software was first demonstrated to The Rt. Reverend Daniel Morse, Bishop Ordinary, The Most Reverend Ray Sutton, Presiding Bishop, and The Venerable Jim Payne, Archdeacon and Chairman of the Constitutions and Canons Committee of REC. A sample vote was conducted in which all participated, and consent for this electronic election process was sought and received from ++ Bp. Sutton after discussion by teleconference among the above on February 3, 2017.

Subsequently, a similar sample vote was conducted among the members of the SC. Upon the conclusion of the demonstration, and certification by the SC members that all aspects of canonical requirements are fully met, the SC unanimously approved the use of the software for an electronic vote for Bishop Coadjutor of DCS.

Accordingly, I have directed the President of the Standing Committee to prepare and conduct an electronic “yes or no” vote for Bishop Coadjutor of DCS, to take place on Monday, March 27, 2017. This electronic vote will constitute a Synod at which a Bishop is to be elected, and this letter provides the required notice thereof, in accordance with The Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of the Central States, Canon II, Section 2. Two non-voting clergy, The Rev. Dcn. Ken Mills and The Rev. Dcn. Barton Gingerich, will serve as tellers to receive and verify the voting results and forward the information to the SC.

The adoption of this process assuaged a significant concern for achieving a quorum should clergy and delegates be required to travel and assemble to vote for a single candidate. This process has replaced the time and expense of travel with a simple electronic ballot that will take less than a minute of your time. I therefore expect full attention to this vote, with timely and full response of all voting clergy and delegates. Further instructions for the vote will be forthcoming from the SC.

In Christ,

2016-2017 Report of the Standing Committee Diocese of Central States

October 26, 2017

Election of the Bishop Coadjutor:

Per the resolution unanimously adopted by the 2016 Synod of the DCS, and per the directions of the Bishop Ordinary of the DCS and the Presiding Bishop of the REC, the Standing Committee undertook oversight of the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the DCS. The process began in November 2016 with a nomination period that concluded on January 15, 2017. The nomination process resulted in a single nominee, The Rt. Rev. Peter F. Manto. Permission for the election was granted by the ACNA College of Bishops in January, 2017.

Subsequently, the Standing Committee developed a method for an electronic election, using commercially available software, potentially eliminating the need for travel by clergy and delegates to an election Synod for a single nominee. Through numerous demonstrations and test votes, the electronic voting methodology was subsequently approved by the Standing Committee, the Ordinary, and the Presiding Bishop. Further demonstrations and test votes for the voting electorate were conducted, and on Monday, March 27, 2017, the Synod of the Diocese of the Central States unanimously elected The Rt. Rev. Peter F. Manto as Bishop Coadjutor.

Appropriate documentation was prepared by the Standing Committee for the presentation of the election results to the June, 2017, 55th General Convention of the REC in Dallas, TX. Bishop Manto's election was unanimously approved by the General Convention, and subsequently by the College of Bishops of ACNA in July, 2017. The General Convention documentation is attached to this report since it provides the most complete record of the election process.

Clergy Matters:

Postulants:

On October 5, 2017, the Bishop Ordinary forwarded the Postulancy Application of Mr. James R. Chasteen of Christ the King Anglican Church to the Standing Committee President. This application is being reviewed by the Standing Committee, and a recommendation to the Bishop Ordinary will be forthcoming.

Presbyters:

On December 23, 2016, the Standing Committee voted to recommend to the Bishop Ordinary the reception of The Rev. Edward T. Tuten into the REC (assisting at St. James REC, Memphis, TN) in a retired status. Fr. Tuten was subsequently received by the Ordinary on January 4, 2017.

On January 4, 2107, the Standing Committee voted to approve the call of the Rev. Davidson Morse to St. Andrew's Reformed Episcopal Church, Appomattox, VA.

In July of 2017 the Bishop Ordinary referred the application of The Rev. Dr. Cristopher J. King of Kannapolis, NC, to the Standing Committee. The President of the Standing Committee referred The Rev. Dr. King to Frs. Paul Edgerton and Ian MacGregor for a period of indoctrination into the Anglican way before referring The Rev. Dr. King to the Examining Chaplains or considering subsequent recommendations to the Ordinary regarding reception.

On July 29, 2017, the Standing Committee voted to recommend to the Bishop Ordinary the reception of The Rev. Dominic D. Taranto into the REC. Fr. Taranto (assisting at All Saints Anglican, Raleigh, NC) was subsequently received by the Ordinary on August 16, 2017.

Organizational Matters:

In compliance with the REC and Diocesan Canons, the Standing Committee is organized into classes by year, such that each year one clergy and one lay member may rotate off, and the Nominating Committee of the Diocese may nominate a replacement for each. The current classes are as follows:

Clergy Members:

Class of 2017 – The Very Rev. W. Scott Thompson (SC President, rolling off)

Class of 2018 – The Rev. Dr. Paul Edgerton

Class of 2019 – The Rev. Josiah Jones

Class of 2020 – To be elected

Lay Members:

Class of 2017 – Dr. Sam Mansour (rolling off)

Class of 2018 – Mr. Cullen Estes

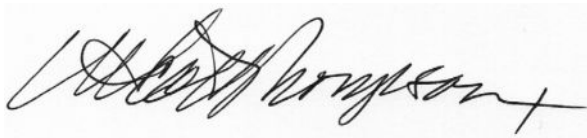

Class of 2019 – Mr. Jim Stubblefield

Class of 2020 – To be elected

Please join me in rendering heartfelt thanks to Dr. Mansour for his long and faithful service on this very busy committee.

This concludes the report of the Standing Committee for the 2016-2017 reporting period.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'W. Scott Thompson', is written over a light gray rectangular background.

2016-2017 Report of the Examining Chaplains Diocese of Central States

October 26, 2017

Receptions of Clergy from Other Churches:

There have been no candidates presented to the Examining Chaplains for reception into the DCS/REC during this reporting period.

Examinations of Candidates for the Diaconate:

On Wednesday, October 25, 2017, the Examining Chaplains, having previously reviewed the written examination submissions, conducted oral examinations of the following Postulants for ordination to the Diaconate:

Mr. Christopher H. Brown
Mr. David C. Goodwin
Dr. Duane E. Veley
Mr. Bradley J. Winsler

The results of these examinations will be submitted in writing to the Ordinary and to the Standing Committee as required by the Canons of the Diocese and the REC

Examinations of Candidates for the Presbyterate:

On Wednesday, October 25, 2017, the Examining Chaplains, having previously reviewed the written examination submissions, conducted oral examinations of the following Deacons for ordination to the Presbyterate:

The Rev. Dcn. Barton J. Gingerich
The Rev. Dcn. Kenneth D. Mills

The results of these examinations will be submitted in writing to the Ordinary and to the Standing Committee as required by the Canons of the Diocese and the REC

Organizational Matters:

In compliance with the REC and Diocesan Canons, members of the Board of Examining Chaplains are appointed by the Bishop Ordinary, and serve at his pleasure. The currently designated Examining Chaplains are:

The Rev. Keith Boettner
The Rev. Dr. Paul Edgerton
The Rev. Canon J. Scott Houser
The Rev. Wayne McNamara
The Very Rev. W. Scott Thompson (Chairman)

Other Matters:

As initiated at the Synod of 2016, it is the normative policy of the DCS Board of Examining Chaplains to conduct in-person oral examinations the day before the annual Synod. Interim telephone interviews will be considered only in situations of unusual urgency confirmed by the Ordinary and/or Coadjutor. It is the intent of the Board to continually improve our examination process, and to maintain the rigor of oral and written examination of candidates for Holy Orders in the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MINISTERS' SALARIES
February 26, 2016

Dear Brethren:

This report is limited to providing a yearly guideline concerning Minister's Salaries. For others matters pertaining to Parish Administration and salary guidelines, please consult the Diocesan Customary or contact the Diocesan office. A copy of the Customary may be obtained through the Diocesan Office or online at www.recdma.org.

While recognizing that individual parish capabilities and budgets differ, we still believe it is important to set minimum standards for which our congregations should strive concerning the salaries paid to ministers. For the several years, this report has relied on the standards set by the standards and guidelines of the Anglican Diocese of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (ACNA). The chart below reflects the recommended compensation guidelines for 2016. It is noted that these figures are the MINIMUM standards for the FIRST year of incumbency. Consideration should be made for the number of years of previous experience and number of years of service to the parish. Adjustment should also be made for job complexity (size of staff, oversight of preschool or day school, educational level, etc). Further consideration should also be made for geographical location as this represents Pittsburgh, PA and cost of living may be different in different areas.

RECTOR
(1ST YEAR OF INCUMBENCY)

	Budget under $250,000	Budget over $250,000 & under $500,000	Budget over $500,000 & under $1,000,00	Budget over $1,000,000
Metro/Suburban	$61,800	$68,500	$81,275	$84,900
Town/Rural	$60,150	$66,850	$78,900	$83,250

FULL-TIME ASSISTANT PRIEST
(1ST YEAR OF INCUMBENCY)

	Budget under $250,000	Budget over $250,000 & under $500,000	Budget over $500,000 & under $1,000,00	Budget over $1,000,000
Metro/Suburban	$54,975	$61,450	$65,700	$68,250
Town/Rural	$54,050	$60,425	$64,975	$67,525

HALF TIME (25 HOUR PER WEEK) RECTOR, CHURCH PLANTER, ASSISTANT PRIEST
(1ST YEAR OF INCUMBENCY)

	Budget under $250,000	Budget over $250,000 & under $500,000	Budget over $500,000 & under $1,000,00	Budget over $1,000,000
Metro/Suburban	$20,350	$20,650	$23,350	$23,750
Town/Rural	$20,700	$20,780	$24,050	$23,425

The cash compensation represented in the chart does include the value of the rectory, rectory allowances and utilities paid if a rectory is provided by the parish. These figures do not include fringe benefits, such as health insurance, disability, and life insurance. Nor does it include the Disability policy and defined Pension Contribution mandated by the General Council. In no circumstance should a pastor's cash compensation be reduced to cover the cost of the General Council mandated pension program (12%) as this violates the terms of the Pension Program.

We recommend that clergy be given a minimum of four weeks paid vacation (including 4 Sundays) and one week of study leave. It is also recommended that pastors be remembered at Christmas time. The Vestry of each parish should determine to present a Christmas gift to the pastor. A special appeal should be made to the parishioners and a special offering taken. This gift should be over and above any approved salary.

The parish vestry should provide AN ANNUAL REVIEW OF THE PASTOR'S COMPENSATION PACKAGE. At the very least, a cost of living adjustment (COLA) commensurate with the rate of inflation should be provided. If such a COLA is not provided then the pastor is, in essence, receiving a reduction in salary. In such cases when the pastor's compensation is below the above minimum guidelines, it would be most appropriate for the parish vestry to review the financial position of the parish more frequently and determine if increases can be provided to the pastor throughout the year.

Parishes should also be mindful of other expenses associated with the ministry of the pastor. Regular reimbursements for hospital parking, mileage at the published IRS rate for employees (2016 rate = $0.54/mile), meals with parishioners, and other expenses should be made with accompanying receipts.

Lastly, this committee does not provide any advice concerning the legalities of the Affordable Care Act. We do, however, advise you that a group health insurance policy is available to our parish employees through the ACNA Health Benefits office. If interested, you may visit their website and contact them directly: <http://www.anglicanchurch.net/?/main/page/benefits>

Most pastors will not initiate a conversation or direct the Vestry to consider their own compensation. It should be the regular and normal duty of the Senior Warden to direct the Vestry in these matters. To help with this, we ask that you please provide a copy of this report to your parish Vestry.

Respectfully Submitted,

The Very Rev. Jason R. Grote

The Diocesan Trustees for 2017 consisted of
Deacon Ken Mills, Treasurer
Father David Straw, President
Patricia Smith, Vice President
Father Ian MacGregor, Secretary
Father David Truax
Perry Hayes
Mark Malson
Brad Burke
Bishop Daniel Morse (Ex officio member)
Bishop Peter Manto (Ex officio member)

In 2017 the Trustees decided to:

- 1) Meet quarterly.
- 2) Keep the precious metals in the safety deposit box in Tennessee and to give safety deposit box access to the new Treasurer.
- 3) Begin paying tithes to the REC on a periodic basis rather than an annual lump sum. Regular payments will assist with Diocesan Sustentation Fund planning and smooth out our cash flow.
- 4) Approve 2018 proposed budget to be presented to the Synod.
- 5) Approve to Appomattox Christian Academy, Ministry of St. Andrews REC, Appomattox VA
 - a) gift of $2,500
 - b) no interest loan, $2,500/ 24 months.

6) Clergy Salary
7) Meeting 10/27
48

For 2018 the Trustees plan to consider:

- 1) Appropriate moves for diversifying future investments.
- 2) Upgrading our record keeping program.
- 3) increasing the Bishop's Discretionary Fund.

God bless,

Fr. David Straw
